Form 990 - Organization's Mission

DREAMS is a youth development program that is dedicated to building creative, committed citizens by providing youth in need with high-quality, free-of-charge programming in the literary, visual and performing arts. DREAMS serves low-income youth, ages 8-17, at our inner-City center and at multiple outreach sites in a tri-county area, including City recreation centers, public/low-income housing, after-school program sites, schools, and day programs serving delinquent and suspended youth.

DREAMS is dedicated to empowering our community's most disenfranchised young people, providing them with the tools and support needed to express themselves creatively, become engaged and involved citizens, graduate from high school and pursue higher education. Over the years Dreams has provided a place where thousands of young people have engaged in youth development activities that kept them off the street, drug free, in school, out of gangs and in a positive environment where achievement rather than failure is the norm.

Through increasing self-confidence, building skills, cultivating connections to the community, fostering relationships with positive adult role models and peers, and providing opportunities for self expression, the DREAMS program builds creative, committed citizens - one child at a time.
